SPEAKER, Mr. (Sri H. S. RUDRAPPA)—

Observation(s) —

Adjournment Motion—

An —— need not be brought to the notice of the House. The Chair can straightaway dispose it of by saying that it is not necessary. In some fit cases, the Chair may bring it to the notice of the House and if necessary, he may ask the Hon'ble Member to explain the circumstances. 588.

Bill—

A member cannot discuss all the rights and wrongs of Tenancd Act while considering the 'Mysore (Personal any Miscellaneous) Inams Abolition (Amendment) ——, 1956. He can make a passing reference to the provisions of the Act. 311.

General—

Any matter that could not be put on the agenda should not be discussed in the House. 2415.
If Hon'ble Members carry prejudices even in the debate and raise objection at every point, the dignity of the House will be brought down and it will not be possible to carry on the proceedings. 687.
It is not proper to rely on newspaper reports and make suggestions on that basis. 384.
Members must address the Chair and not each other. 896.
No discussion can take place on the statement, re food situation in the State. If a member wants to have discussion, then, he can table a motion under the Rules of Procedure, and the Chair will consider it. 2064.
No Hon'ble Member should use a language which is not consistent with the dignity of the House either against any other Member of the House or against any Minister. 13.
The attention of the officers and the Government should not be diverted from the business of the House when it is in session by holding seminars, etc. 1280.
What appears in the Press cannot be considered to be an authority. 786.
What has been discussed in the Cabinet cannot be discussed in the House. 12.
When once a decision is taken by the House, it cannot be discussed again. 2398.
While an Hon'ble Member makes a speech he should not cast aspersions against other State Governments. 1129.

Estimates Committee—

At no time the Report of the ——, is discussed. Only the Public Account Committee's Report is discussed.

Public Accounts Committee—

There is no time limit fixed for submission of the Report by the ——, but it is necessary that they should submit it by the end of the year.

Question—

Hon'ble Member cannot discuss the provisions of law during —— hour. 632.

No insinuation or unparliamentary words should be used either during question time or during the time of debate on other matters. 16.

——, concerning the merit of case which is subjudice cannot be allowed because it would be contempt of court.

When cases are pending in courts, matters relating to their background may be raised in the courts and members should avoid putting such ——. 1559.

Resolutions—

Two or three —— cannot be taken together for discussion. 350.

Ruling (s)—

Adjournment Motion—

The ——, re. delay in Nationalisation of Bangalore Transport Company is disallowed on the ground that it is not of such urgency as to require it to be taken up in supersession of the appointed business. 1514.

——, re. non-supply of water to families in Rajaji Nagar Labour Housing Estate is not allowed on the ground that matters of such kind arise in day to day administration and if the Hon'ble Member wants anything to be done in the matter, he can approach the Minister concerned and request him to take suitable steps. 2247.

——, re. Strike in the Mandya Sugar Factory is disallowed in view of the Statement made by the Minister, namely, that the dispute has been settled and that strike has ended. 588.

Bill—

Constitution (Seventh Amendment) ——, 1956, cannot be vetoed. If the Members do not agree, they may send it back. 2070.

Privilege Motion—

An order of Election Tribunal under Section 98 or 99 takes effect only on its publication in the Gazette of India under Section 106. Until the order of Election Tribunal in regard to the petition against Hon'ble Sri H. M. Channabasappa appears in the Gazette of India, he continues to be a member and is entitled to sit and take part in the proceedings of the House. Further, in the light of article 193 which provides penalties in the case of a person sitting or voting in the House when he is not qualified to do so or disqualified from doing so, there is no question of breach of privilege either. 1512.

Question—

Hon'ble Members are entitled to put questions and the Government is expected to answer them. But if an Hon'ble Minister refuses to answer, the Chair cannot force him to answer. 13.

Supplementaries arising out of the main —— cannot be postponed to some other day. 1800.

There can be no point of order during —— time. 1165.
